Break the total into parts. Write a number bond and addition and subtraction number sentences to match the story.

1. Six flowers bloomed on Monday. Some more bloomed on Tuesday. Now there are 8 flowers. How many flowers bloomed on Tuesday?

2. Below are the balloons that Mom bought. She bought 4 balloons for Bella and the rest of the balloons were for Jim. How many balloons did she buy for Jim?
Draw a picture to solve the math story.

3. Missy buys some cupcakes and 2 cookies. Now she has 6 desserts. How many cupcakes did she buy?

\[ \square + \square = \square \]

Missy bought _______ cupcakes.

4. Jim invites 9 friends to his party. 3 friends arrived late, but the rest came early. How many friends came early?

\[ \square \bigcirc \square = \square \]

______friends came early.

5. Mom paints her fingernails on both hands. First she paints 2 red. She paints the rest pink. How many fingernails are pink?

\[ \square \bigcirc \square = \square \]

Mom paints _______ fingernails pink.